The information is published eight weeks after responding to a requestor within our Publication Scheme, which can be found here VUNHST FOI Disclosure Log. The Publication Scheme contains vast amounts of information which you may find useful. In relation to these questions, as the information has been provided to you recently and is contained within the Trust Publication Scheme, the Trust is applying two Qualified Exemptions under the Freedom of Information Act, these are:

Section 21 – Information accessible to the applicant by other means:

(1) Information which is reasonably accessible to the applicant otherwise than under section 1 is exempt information.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)—

(a) information may be reasonably accessible to the applicant even though it is accessible only on payment, and

(b) information is to be taken to be reasonably accessible to the applicant if it is information which the public authority or any other person is obliged by or under any enactment to communicate (otherwise than by making the information available for inspection) to members of the public on request, whether free of charge or on payment.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), information which is held by a public authority and does not fall within subsection (2)(b) is not to be regarded as reasonably accessible to the applicant merely because the information is available from the public authority itself on request, unless the information is made available in accordance with the authority's publication scheme and any payment required is specified in, or determined in accordance with, the scheme.

Section 14(2) - Vexatious or repeated requests:

(2) Where a public authority has previously complied with a request for information which was made by any person, it is not obliged to comply with a subsequent identical or substantially similar request from that person unless a reasonable interval has elapsed between compliance with the previous request and the making of the current request.

The application of a Qualified Exemption under Section 21 of the Act is because the information is readily available within our Publication Scheme and we have signposted you to the Publication Scheme with this letter. In addition, the application of a Qualified Exemption under Section 14(2) is because a reasonable interval has not elapsed since the last time this information was provided to you.

In relation to Questions 3 & 4 of your request, the Trust confirms it holds the relevant information, as shown in the tables below:
